

 Tim in Ky It's Bastille Day for TdF stage 14. And it's only 100 kilometers from start to 07-13 15:24
the finish in Foix.

 Tim in Ky //rumbletalk-images- 07-13 15:24
upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1499974169-TdF%20stage-13-route.jpg

 Tim in Ky But there are three Cat 1 climbs packed into that 100 km. The first comes 07-13 15:28 after 25 km of uphill riding and the last summits 27 km before the finish.

 Tim in Ky //rumbletalk-images- 07-13 15:28
upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1499974396-TdF%20stage-13-profile.jpg

 Tim in Ky The last climb is the toughest. It's 9.3 km long and averages 7.9%. But the 07-13 15:31 last 3.5 km average in the double digits with stretches 16% and 18%.

 Tim in Ky //rumbletalk-images- 07-13 15:31
upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1499974575-TdF%20stage-13-mur-de-peguere.jpg

 Tim in Ky The finish is pretty straightforward except for a hairpin turn with 100 m to 07-13 15:33 go. That could be a problem if a large group finishes together.

 Tim in Ky //rumbletalk-images- 07-13 15:33
upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1499974727-TdF%20stage-13-5km.jpg

 Tim in Ky Race time is 14:45 CET (07:35 EDT) after a 10:00 minute neutral zone. 07-13 15:37

 Marc @ Toad Hall You gotta be kidding! A hairpin at a mountaintop finish is no big 07-13 18:12 deal, but the last crest is 27K earlier. In my business, we call this "reckless." ASO has knowingly provided a risk to the safety of others. Not just any others, the guys they make $ from. They should know there will be a group sprint at the end of this stage. Crashes are more likely than in NASCAR. "General Diversion" puts it too mildly. Only if a well-behaved breakaway succeeds will we avoid carnage. ENUFFF! Our great boys deserve better.

 Tim in Ky General diversion is where the motos and team cars have to leave the 07-13 18:36 course. It is to be hoped that's the hairpin is a very wide sweeping turn.

Tim in Ky I just checked the course on Google maps, and it is wide and sweeping. 07-13 18:41

Over l'Ariège and then back over to the finish.

Katie Lane Should be interesting, especially after today. 07-13 19:20

Katie Lane Hoping the weather is DRY 07-13 19:20

memb54 Good morn8ng, All. What am I doing here at 4.30 a.m.? Oh right. Waiting 07-14 04:28 for the fun to start.

BusterSci UCI has reversed the penalties on Uran, Bennet and Pauwels for taking on 07-14 06:09 water inside the last 10km.

Tim in Ky oooh. Sanity. What might this lead to? 07-14 06:12

BusterSci Eventual disappointment? Certainly not consistency. 07-14 06:13

Tim in Ky Turns out, not sanity. Turns out Bardet did the same thing and rather than 07-14 06:16 punish a Frenchman, they decided not to penalize anyone. So, same old UCI at le Tour.

Tim in Ky Weather forecast is cloudy but dry. 07-14 06:26

Tim in Ky This trio of mountains with a finish in Foix has been done twice before in le 07-14 06:50

Tour. Both of those were won solo out of a breakaway but they were much longer stages. Probably a very short leash today.

RSooseman Water is dangerous within a few miles of a finish. Everyone knows that! 07-14 06:56

Anyone? Hello? :)

Tim in Ky Not much going on now, Mons. 07-14 06:57

Tim in Ky Good grief. The NBC Gold stream doesn't start until 8:30 EDT but the 07-14 07:04

NBCSN stream starts at 7:30.

RSooseman See you in a few hours 07-14 07:05

 BusterSci Tim, I'm just looking at your start info above. You have 14:45 CET and 7:4507-14 07:17

EDT. Shouldn't it be 8:45? 7 hours is Central Europe to US Central (when both are on or off daylight/summer time.)

 Tim in Ky Your right. What's NBCSN doing at 7:30, then? 07-14 07:20

 BusterSci Analyzing bottle footage. 07-14 07:22

 mcnally_mi Not sure. Looks like NBCSN preview show on Gold 07-14 07:32

 Tim in Ky That's what it is. 07-14 07:32

 Tim in Ky At least it's something to watch. 07-14 07:33

 Tim in Ky Analyzing bottle footage. 07-14 07:35

 Tim in Ky Or, you could check out where the teams are staying tonight. 07-14 07:37

 Tim in Ky //rumbletalk-images- 07-14 07:37
upload.s3.amazonaws.com/61922326bc2ef459e5ed5de71ef53a57/1500032535-TdF%20stage-13-hotel.jpg

 mcnally_mi Looked at the Sky hotel just for fun, the Brit Hotel Toulouse. You can get 07-14 07:43 a room for $98. Not too bad.

 mcnally_mi @letourdata tweet "#TDF2017 is as tight as it gets - this is the 1st time 07-14 07:46 ever 3 riders are within 30" on GC after stage 12 (let alone 4 within 35"). #TDFdata". Hoping this doesn't encourage future routes like we have seen this year.

 BusterSci I could live with it if they did something to liven up the flat stages. One 07-14 07:47 suggestion I've heard is giving teams UCI ranking points for breakaways.

 Tim in Ky 200+ km sprint stages would still be boring. 07-14 07:49

 mcnally_mi Yes, my specific concern has been those long flat stages. There is too 07-14 07:49 many. A coworker of mine knows how much I love the sport, so she decided to tune in a few times. Both were the flat stages. She said essentially, beautiful scenery, boring sport.

Tim in Ky We stayed at a cheap airport hotel in Toulouse one. It was dreadful.

07-14 07:49

mcnally_mi I'm making my first trip to France in 2019. Wife and I will be celebrating

07-14 07:53

25th wedding anniv. We are going to do the final few stages of that Tour, then head to the Alps so I can ride my bike (especially the Col de Madeleine, which has been a dream of mine). Then going to Provence for a week with a bike tour. Don't know any of the areas, so hoping it all works out. But looking forward to gurning my way up a few mountains.

BusterSci I've made 3 trips to Provence. Glad to provide some input if you like. You have my email.

07-14 07:54

mcnally_mi Yes, have your email from the book link you sent. Thanks, Buster!

07-14 07:54

Tim in Ky Prattling about Landa.

07-14 08:01

BusterSci mcnally, does the Provence bit take you up Ventoux?

07-14 08:03

BusterSci Wow. Jensie pulls no punches re: Landa.

07-14 08:03

mcnally_mi Yes, it does have that option. Has a little note saying *if winds permit*.

07-14 08:04

But it is one the menu.

Tim in Ky And I think Jens is wrong.

07-14 08:05

BusterSci He's practicing for an FS1 gig.

07-14 08:05

mcnally_mi I initially thought Landa was going for the bonus seconds, which seemed right by me. Team comments were all over the place. The PR folk messed that one up in my opinion. But a consistent message in cycling is rare.

07-14 08:07

BusterSci mcnally, if "winds permit" and the sky is clear, don't pass up Ventoux. The view from the top is incredible on a clear day.

07-14 08:07

BusterSci There's no draft benefit on a 20% incline. And if Froome can't motivate himself for 400 meters, he doesn't deserve to be a leader. I can't blame a racer for going for it in that situation no matter what his role is.

07-14 08:09

 mcnally_mi I plan on giving it a go! Good that I have a few years to work up to it. In 07-14 08:10 the Alps I was going to do Alpe D'Huez and maybe a few others. I will have four days to hit the ones I want.

 BusterSci My best friend from college di Alpe D'Huez twice in a day. He said it wasn't 07-14 08:11 as hard as he thought it would be, but he did stop to take photos on every hairpin.

 mcnally_mi Jens himself said that same thing the other day that you are saying Buster. 07-14 08:11
Not sure why he is changing now and saying Landa should have stayed.

 BusterSci It's the new sports coverage. Don't cover the sport, cover the controversy. 07-14 08:12

 mcnally_mi I will do it once, but it looks like the Col de la Croix de Fer, Col du 07-14 08:12 Télégraphe and Col du Galibier are close. Maybe do one of those that day.

 BusterSci It was fun going the Briançon last fall and seeing the signs to all the big 07-14 08:16 climbs of the area. We were on a haul from Arles to Milan, so didn't have time to stop, but it was maybe the most beautiful drive I've taken (primary competition would be US 550 from Durango to Montrose.)

 Katie Good morning, all. McNally, I got to ride Col du Tourmalet back in 2003. What 07-14 08:16 an experience - amazing how a complete washrag can still feel euphoria. (mixing metaphors, similes, etc)

 Miren Brinkman Morning, I'm tuned in and ready for the action. I plan to do a stage 07-14 08:17 with my brother. He'll be riding his bike up the Ventoux and I'll be using an e-bike!

 mcnally_mi Thanks, Katie. I'm hoping for that same feeling. My friends ask -- you 07-14 08:18 think this is a vacation? Well, yes, I do!

 BusterSci Brain vacation. 07-14 08:19

 BusterSci That wasn't a snark comment. Heavy physical activity with no staring at 07-14 08:20 computers is great downtime for stressed mind.

 BusterSci Being I have nerve issues that keep me from biking much, my version is 07-14 08:20 lugging a canoe through the Boundary Waters.

 Miren Brinkman Agreed, BusterSci. Need to get out of the office and breathe some 07-14 08:20

real oxygen

Tim in Ky I haven't seen any news about Fuglsang this morning.

07-14 08:24

BusterSci If they can get him through today he may still be able to help in the Alps. I think I'd rather totally crash out than what he's dealing with.

mcnally_mi Van de Velde said in this prerace show that he was going to start. See if he can make his way to the end.

Tim in Ky Now we'll get more bottle and Landa talk from Keenan and McEwan.

07-14 08:30

BusterSci But at least it's Keenan and McEwan.

07-14 08:31

Tim in Ky If it ever comes on.

07-14 08:32

mcnally_mi I had to switch back over to get the international feed. It still shows "coverage to begin shortly"

07-14 08:32

Katie Ooooh, test pattern. in French.

07-14 08:32

BusterSci 4 Kiwis at the Tour this year. 3 Americans. NZ population about 4 million.

07-14 08:32

Katie does that include the sheep?

07-14 08:33

BusterSci Does it matter?

07-14 08:36

BusterSci It matters to the sheep.

07-14 08:36

BusterSci And they're rolling. Fictif.

07-14 08:38

Miren Brinkman I thought HWSNBM wasn't to be anywhere near cycling. He's on a stages podcast of the TdF.

07-14 08:39

BusterSci UCI can't keep him from podcasting.

07-14 08:40

 SFinAusTx Good morning all. So this is what the start of a stage looks like. I always wondered. ;)

 BusterSci Not going to get you to change your alarm setting, is it?

 Rob Didnt froome and wiggo have a deal in 2012 that froome could go for stage wins when he was a few hundred meters out?

 SFinAusTx Heh, probably not. Should be fun watching Astana's ability to control a race today. Not an easy day to so.

 BusterSci Rob: Nope. Froome did the same thing to Wiggo as Landa did to Froome yesterday--on much the same stage. Only he rubbed it in more.

 Gilliemarie Morning, late start today?

 Tim in Ky And later than it was supposed to be.

 BusterSci Yes. Shortest stage in decades. Late start on Bastille day so the fans can get good and liquored up before hand.

 BusterSci And we have Frenchmen off the front

 Tim in Ky This is not the dog fight that was expected.

 KiinPA mcnally_mi, if you reverse your trip & do Alps first, you could do La Marmotte, a Gran Fondo up Glandon, Telegraph, Galibier & Alpe d'Huez all in one, supported ride

 BusterSci I've made 3 trips to Provence. Glad to provide some input if you like. You have my email.

 mcnally_mi Yes, have your email from the book link you sent. Thanks, Buster!

SFinAusTx I do look forward to this early break forming action for a change.

07-14 08:49

mcnally_mi My buddy just did that race! He said it was very very hard. Took him 8.5 hours, but he made the cutoff before Alpe D'Huez, which was the finishing climb this year.

07-14 08:50

Katie I love it, Voeckler takes off. w/ Barguil. It must be Bastille Day.

07-14 08:51

Bill Wilkinson Moto shots of Tommy V from behind feel like just a big tease....

07-14 08:51

Tim in Ky Fuglsang already OTB.

07-14 08:52

Bill Wilkinson I couldn't imagine trying to ride with a broken wrist....

07-14 08:52

Alison Quarles Is anyone getting anything on Sports gold?

07-14 08:55

BusterSci Looks like he's on the back. And yes, Gold is running.

07-14 08:55

Tim in Ky Yes.

07-14 08:55

SFinAusTx Yes working well for me too

07-14 08:56

Rob I do feel lucky being in the UK when i see you guys struggling to get feeds.

07-14 08:58

Miren Brinkman Rob, which channel is it on?

07-14 08:58

Rob I have Eurosport on my Ipad, £6.99 for a month. Lets me choose different moto cameras if I want.

07-14 08:59

Katie The peloton is not letting those guys go anywhere

07-14 08:59

BusterSci Barguil and Voeckler still a bit off the front with small groups trying to bridge.

07-14 08:59

Alison Quarles Gold is just spinning here but I managed to get Phil and Paul.

07-14 09:00

BusterSci Caught and over the top

07-14 09:00

BusterSci About 15 riders with a small gp

07-14 09:00

KiinPA Alison, are you courageous enough to take your suitcase to a pirate feed?

07-14 09:01

Tim in Ky This is more what I expected.

07-14 09:01

BusterSci About 1km from the intermediate sprint.

07-14 09:02

Alison Quarles KiinPA - how do I do that?

07-14 09:02

Bill Wilkinson Chava, Gilbert and DeMarchi off the front

07-14 09:03

BusterSci 500m to sprint

07-14 09:03

BusterSci 300m

07-14 09:03

Bill Wilkinson Sprinters are off...Matthews takes 4th, Kittel 5th

07-14 09:03

BusterSci Gilbert, Chavenel, Di Marchi

07-14 09:03

Bill Wilkinson Vichot abandons, not sure why.

07-14 09:04

BusterSci 15s gap

07-14 09:04

KiinPA I'd try one of the links on Steephill

07-14 09:04

Tim in Ky Vichot was injured on Wednesday.

07-14 09:04

BusterSci Voekler. https://video.twimg.com/tweet\_video/DEsl6AIXgAAqmyM.mp4

07-14 09:05

BusterSci Did that take for you guys?

07-14 09:05

Bill Wilkinson Thanks, Tim!

07-14 09:05

mcnally_mi FDJ is now down to 4 riders.

07-14 09:05

KiinPA Sadly it did, B-sci

07-14 09:05

Bill Wilkinson Voekleur goat? yep.

07-14 09:05

Miren Brinkman KiinPA I'm watching BT Sport as well as Eurosport, using HotSpot

07-14 09:06

Shield. However, cycling is not on at the mo. Very frustrating.

BusterSci 19s

07-14 09:08

BusterSci 83.8km

07-14 09:08

Steve in CO Good morning all. Ad-free gold is up an running for me.

07-14 09:08

Katie Whaddya suppose the dinnertable talk was at Sky last night? Rifling through the play book and making changes? Attack today? Bide time until the next set of mountains? Wait for the TT? Smack Landa around?

07-14 09:12

SFinAusTx Maybe they sent Landa to bed without dinner.

07-14 09:13

Gilliemarie Bet they gave him water tho

07-14 09:13

Katie but no electrolytes

07-14 09:14

SFinAusTx I suspect they'll be content to bide there time for a few days. Probably a nice relative break from grinding it out on the front day after day

07-14 09:14

SFinAusTx "their", oy

07-14 09:15

Charles Davis Hello all. I am still in recovery mode from whatever this illness is. I have lurked for the last few days. Feel well enough to participate today.

07-14 09:15

Miren Brinkman Geraint Thomas has announced he will not participate in the Vuelta

07-14 10:32

Miren Brinkman Anyone remember this? Quoted from another site: The climb was 07-14 10:33 used in the 2012 Tour de France when over 30 riders suffered punctures after a protester put tacks on the road. Cadel Evans was one of those to suffer a puncture and his team manager Jim Ochowicz fell in a ditch as he tried to help him out.

BusterSci But correct. It was kinda sad they didn't pull him earlier.

07-14 10:33

Gilliemarie But not surprising!

07-14 10:33

BusterSci No. Not surprising at all.

07-14 10:33

Rob I remember Miren, someone put it into a loop and put the Benny Hill music to it. 07-14 10:34

BusterSci Iran too far back

07-14 10:34

BusterSci That was when Tejay road past Cadel and instead of giving him a wheel he 07-14 10:35 hit the gas and went off.

BusterSci Quintana group is now 30s back

07-14 10:35

BusterSci Not the gas that Landa and Contador have. And by gas, I mean...

07-14 10:35

07-14 10:36

BusterSci 2:31 to yellow

07-14 10:36

BusterSci The yellow group needs to pick it up soon. Someone needs to attack.

07-14 10:37

BusterSci No thanks. I'm full.

07-14 10:39

BusterSci Landa wondering if he should wake up yet.

07-14 10:39

BusterSci In the Quintana group I think Nairo is the only one working. Barguil just wants points. Kwiat has no reason to work at all.

07-14 10:40

BusterSci 31.1km. 2:38. 3.9km to climb

07-14 10:40

Tim in Ky What is the jersey group thinking? playing chicken?

07-14 10:41

BusterSci I have no idea.

07-14 10:41

BusterSci Maybe they're hoping Bardet will bomb the descent and make up the time?

07-14 10:41

BusterSci 2:43 now.

07-14 10:41

Tim in Ky On the steeps now.

07-14 10:42

BusterSci Kwiat can't hold with Quintana and Barguil

07-14 10:42

BusterSci Maybe coming back to help Froome

07-14 10:43

BusterSci 30.4km. 2:49. 3.2km to climb

07-14 10:43

Tim in Ky I think he's waiting.

07-14 10:43

Marc @ Toad Hall Thanks, everyone. No video gets to Toad Hall today. Pity, since this short stage is how you seduce others into watching cycling.
