

Tim in Ky Giro stage 17 is 219 kilometers with mountains right from the start

05-23 15:44

followed by a long uphill drag to the finish.

Tim in Ky After a brutal stage 16 and before a tough stage 18, I would expect the GC 05-23 15:46 teams would be more than happy to see a break stay away. The problem will be getting a acceptable break formed on those two early climbs.

Tim in Ky The route is again west to east across Northern Italy, just a bit south of the 05-23 15:50 stage 16 course.

Tim in Ky The race is underway and there are three out in front: Pierre Rolland 05-24 05:33

BusterSci BusterSci:Morning. Mons, I don't know if you noticed but the right hand margin of your essay looks to have cut off about 5 characters of each line. Could you try again?

05-24 05:44

Tim in Ky Well, it did stick but only to the tune of 4:15. Rolland takes top points on the first climb.

05-24 06:08

Tim in Ky Bahrain is leading the chase.

05-24 06:09

BusterSci After a day of thought, Tim, what is your take on the events of yesterday?

05-24 06:11

BusterSci There have been a couple attempts to bridge by small groups of strong riders but Bahrain is having none of it.

05-24 06:17

BusterSci The first Cat 2 and descent are over for the break.

05-24 06:21

Tim in Ky Buster, If Dumoulin and Ten Dam don't fault the peloton, then I don't think

05-24 06:23

I can.

Tim in Ky What's up with Nibbles? Bahrain brings the gap down to 1:53.

05-24 06:24

BusterSci I see it a lot like wheel sucking. The goal is to win the race by being the strongest over 3 weeks--including not having emergency bathroom breaks. Unwritten rules aren't rules, so you technically aren't doing something wrong by violating them. But that said, I like to see the bits of nobility that waiting would have shown.

05-24 06:29

BusterSci I have to wonder, though, if Dumoulin and ten Dam aren't underplaying their displeasure a bit. Airing grievances, especially about the first Italian stage winner this year, isn't going to do them much good. Regardless, I don't disagree with you at all. More trying to air other possibilities.

Tim in Ky There hasn't been an update to the gap in quite a while.

05-24 06:34

Tim in Ky And now there is. 1:45.

05-24 06:35

BusterSci I think Bahrain is thinking that Dumoulin may have a larger health issue 05-24 06:36 than a bout of dumping syndrome. So they want to put him and his team under pressure by pushing on hard.

Tim in Ky A group of 20 is now a few seconds in front of the peloton. 05-24 06:36

BusterSci Sounds like the peloton is letting the large group go. 05-24 06:39

Tim in Ky The large counter attack seems to have been let go by the GC teams. At 05-24 06:39 least for the duration of the second climb.

Tim in Ky No names, no time gaps. It would be nice to have video. 05-24 06:46

BusterSci Conti, T-Not and Ventoso are in the chasing group. 05-24 06:48

Tim in Ky Along with about 40 of their closest friends. 05-24 06:48

Tim in Ky Good morning, Marc. 05-24 06:49

BusterSci how are the toads in the hall, Marc? 05-24 06:49

Tim in Ky The large chase is at 1:20, the peloton at 3:00. 05-24 06:51

Tim in Ky Still on the long second climb.

05-24 06:52

Marc @Toad Hall Toadless so far this year. Alas, our amphibian friends are succumbing to environmental degradation, as well as some skin diseases.

05-24 06:59

BusterSci I saw two yesterday as I was weeding. We've had a very wet spring and the amphibians are temporarily happy.

05-24 06:59

Tim in Ky The chase is now at 1:00, the peloton at 5:00.

05-24 07:00

Tim in Ky I have no amphibious wildlife in my garden.

05-24 07:01

Marc @Toad Hall 43625

05-24 07:03

Marc @Toad Hall 3.....

05-24 07:03

Tim in Ky Still no video.

05-24 07:05

Marc @Toad Hall Sorry, affectionate cat entry. I was speaking with an RN yesterday about Dumpling, and she suggested that these racers have an enema before suiting up. In a way, it makes sense, weight saving and avoiding some messy time loss.

05-24 07:06

BusterSci Just listened to Ashley House's podcast for the morning. He says that

05-24 07:08

Dumoulin and Sunweb's body language did not match their words during his interviews yesterday, and regardless of what they said they were angry. But they also were very honest about the fact that it wasn't the same as a mechanical. It was a rider problem, not a mechanical, so maybe rules are different.

Tim in Ky Valerio Agnoli (Bahrain-Merida), Ben Gastauer and Quentin Jaurégui

05-24 07:08

(Ag2r La Mondiale), Jesper Hansen (Astana), Enrico Barbin and Lorenzo Rota (Bardiani-CSF), Tejay Van Garderen, Manuel Senni, and Francisco Ventoso (BMC Racing), Jan Barta and Jose Mendes (Bora-hansgrohe), Felix Grosschartner, Lukasz Owsian, Branislau Samoilau and Michal Schelgel (CCC Sprandi Polkowice), Michael Woods (Cannondale-Drapac), Jérémy Roy (FDJ), Maxime Monfort (Lotto Soudal), Gorka Izagirre and Rory Sutherland (Movistar), Christopher Juul-Jensen (Orica-Scott), Laurens De Plus and Dries Devenyns (Quick-Step Floors), Natnael Berhane, Omar Fraile, Jacques Janse Van Rensburg, Kristian Sbaragli, and Daniel Teklehaimanot (Dimension Data), Martijn Keizer (LottoNL-Jumbo), Salvatore Puccio (Team Sky), Simon Geschke (Team Sunweb), Peter Stetina and Julien Bernard (Trek-Segafredo), Rui Costa, Valerio Conti and Jan Polanc (UAE Team Emirates), Julen Amezqueta, Matteo Busato and Ilya Koshevoy (Wilier-Selle Italia), and Sergey Firsanov (Gazprom-Rusvelo).

BusterSci Eurosport just timed TD's stop. It took him 1:19. So he lost just under a minute by riding alone. 05-24 07:08

Tim in Ky Digest that. 05-24 07:08

BusterSci And then do what with it, Tim? :) 05-24 07:09

Tim in Ky Five DDD's in that group. 05-24 07:10

Tim in Ky The original break has 5:00 on the peloton. No current gap for the chase mob. 05-24 07:11

BusterSci Ashley House also reported that multiple DSes reported that TV in the team cars went out and they were relying purely on race radio, which did not give info on TD's status, while the radio did give info on what was happening in front. 05-24 07:12

Tim in Ky Chase is at 1:20 as the break nears the summit of the second climb. Peloton still at 5:00. 05-24 07:16

Tim in Ky In the chase, Polanc is at 12:13 and Monfort at 14:46. The rest are all 39:00 or greater. 05-24 07:18

Tim in Ky Gap to the peloton is now over 8:00. Sunweb on point. 05-24 07:19

BusterSci Other discussion on podcasts and Twitter included comparison with the opening of the book Slaying the Badger, where the story of Greg Lemond's similar experience is told. When Lemond had to go during the Tour, he borrowed a teammate's cycling cap and put it down his shorts to limit the damage. When he returned to the team bus after the stage he rushed to the bathroom to finish his business. He didn't realize that the toilet he chose was not in service and was being used for storage, meaning he relieved himself on a stack of Bernard Hinault promotional photographs. 05-24 07:20

Tim in Ky I'm not sure I needed to know that. 05-24 07:20

Tim in Ky Now that the break and chase are over the top of the climb, I have to be gone for a while. 05-24 07:22

BusterSci Just trying to leave little nuggets for late arrivals who read the whole stage. 05-24 07:22

BusterSci I'm good until about 8:45 CDT.

05-24 07:24

BusterSci Brutt descending quickly off the front.

05-24 07:28

BusterSci Sunweb leading the GC group

05-24 07:28

BusterSci 8:54 for the GC group.

05-24 07:28

BusterSci And they're over the top

05-24 07:29

BusterSci Now about 50km of lumps that are generally downhill. The remaining 90km of the stage are mostly a slow uphill drag.

05-24 07:30

BusterSci Looks like it may be a quiet GC day.

05-24 07:33

BusterSci Hi, Jo.

05-24 07:33

Joanna in New York Hi Buster! Hi Tim! Hi Marc!

05-24 07:33

BusterSci Tim is off for a bit so I've been manning the poop deck.

05-24 07:34

BusterSci Sacha Modolo abandons.

05-24 07:35

Joanna in New York So, the inevitable "potty break" conversation has begun. I joked yesterday on the LUGNUTS FB page that Nature didn't just call Dumoulin, she had him on speed dial. In all my years of watching cycling, I think that was a first (or should I say second).

05-24 07:35

BusterSci He wasn't the first Tom to suffer. There were also lots of pics of Mr. Boonen going around yesterday from the time he left skid marks somewhere other than the road.

05-24 07:36

Joanna in New York Oh my...

05-24 07:37

BusterSci That's one way to keep people from sitting on your wheel, I suppose.

05-24 07:38

Marc @Toad Hall This threatens to become a paint-drying stage.

05-24 07:39

BusterSci Yeah, Marc. totally.

05-24 07:39

BusterSci I suspect Tom is susceptible to dumping syndrome. Some people, when ingesting too much sugar too quickly, cause a rapid "bloom" of bacteria in their intestinal tract. The body knows that ain't right, so I does what it needs to in order to clear the offending microorganisms. It's not uncommon, and this wasn't Dumoulin's first issue with it.

05-24 07:41

BusterSci It's also an issue with people who have had gastric bypass surgery. That's how I learned of it, as I was working on a medical device to aid weight loss in a less invasive manner.

05-24 07:43

BusterSci Nearly 10 minutes for the leading three. The large chase group is 3:26 back. 05-24 07:45

BusterSci Rolland dropped from the lead group, so it's 2 in front now.

05-24 07:45

Joanna in New York While TD's events of yesterday provide excellent fodder for

05-24 07:46

*our* brand of humor and snark - I feel a bit sorry for him. I bet he's thinking "Thank God this wasn't the TdF"!

BusterSci That's where his previous incident was. He actually pulled over and used a spectator's camper van.

05-24 07:47

Joanna in New York Oh, I remember that now...oy!

05-24 07:47

BusterSci Marc mentioned the possibility of an enema before the race. I don't think that would have helped Tom, as it was likely the concentrated glucose in the gels and other foods he ingested during the race that caused his problems.

05-24 07:49

Joanna in New York Quite the "Catch 22" if that is the case, Buster.

05-24 07:49

BusterSci CN doing a feature on the high-tech bike Tom is using to control the situation for the rest of the race:

05-24 07:50

BusterSci Brutt has been in the break over 500km so far this Giro.

05-24 08:01

Marc @Toad Hall BIX is 17 pounds of AM help, now draped over right wrist. He was more subdued during ToC:

05-24 08:02

Joanna in New York Alright, I'm outta' here. Have a great day!

05-24 08:02

BusterSci Bye, Jo!

05-24 08:02

BusterSci 116km. 4:49 to the chase, 9:42 to the maglia rosa group.

05-24 08:05

BusterSci The mostly downhill turns to mostly uphill at 88km.

05-24 08:05

Tim in Ky What happened to Rolland while I was gone?

05-24 08:10

BusterSci he gave it up.

05-24 08:10

BusterSci Just rolled back to the chase group.

05-24 08:10

Tim in Ky You'd think a chase of 38 could bridge to a break of three.

05-24 08:11

Tim in Ky Looks like they need some rain in northern Italy.

05-24 08:12

BusterSci There hasn't been a ton of focus on the chase, but it seems like there's a small group that's working and the rest are kind of hanging on.

05-24 08:12

BusterSci Maybe they think the time to reel in the break is once they start climbing.

05-24 08:13

Tim in Ky That is one low reservoir.

05-24 08:17

BusterSci Time to go clear out some sediment.

05-24 08:18

Tim in Ky Kirby says this is the driest Giro of all time. Fine with me.

05-24 08:19

BusterSci I'm here. Even if it says I'm not. Working on something...

05-24 08:21

Tim in Ky 5:36, 11:43 with 98 km to go.

05-24 08:26

Tim in Ky A group of three has attacked the chase.

05-24 08:27

Tim in Ky In fact, the chase has fractured into many pieces.

05-24 08:29

Katie good one!

05-24 08:33

BusterSci Wow. 11:48

05-24 08:33

Tim in Ky Hi, Katie.

05-24 08:33

BusterSci Welcome aboard, Katie.

05-24 08:33

Tim in Ky I'm not surprised at the gap. Big boys need a rest day.

05-24 08:33

Tim in Ky Pretty soon we start the relentless up to the finish.

05-24 08:34

BusterSci The 6+ to the chasing group is the gap to watch. Polanc there is putting some top 10 spots at risk.

05-24 08:34

Tim in Ky Chase one is at 4:46. I don't know which chase Polanc is in.

05-24 08:36

Charles Davis Hi all. As for yesterday, I think the big boys did hold off for a few seconds then decided to go. I have no problem with how they reacted because if they had waited the guys out front would have been gone. Nibali wanted the win (and time).

05-24 08:36

Katie I feel for Dumoulin, I really do. But I can't imagine a group of riders stopping and milling about while the pink jersey fertilizes the verge. 05-24 08:36

Tim in Ky Chase one is in the feedzone. 05-24 08:37

Tim in Ky 4:20, 12:02. 05-24 08:38

Mons Soseman Hey everyone. Just on for a moment 05-24 08:42

BusterSci Mons, can you repost your essay? Your cut and past cut about 5 characters off the right side. 05-24 08:42

Tim in Ky Still don't know where Polanc is. There is a UAE in chase one but I don't know if it's him. 05-24 08:43

Mons Soseman drat 05-24 08:43

Mons Soseman and I posted that from a place I won't be back to until next Monday... Usually I email myself a copy but this morning was rushed. 05-24 08:44

BusterSci If Polanc and Monfort are still in the main chase, they are virtual 9th and 11th on the road (instead of 13th and 15th.) 05-24 08:44

Mons Soseman That should not have happened. Sorry guys. 05-24 08:44

BusterSci Well, as Tom Dumoulin would surely be qualified to say...---- happens. 05-24 08:45

Tim in Ky Kiby and Lloyd think they've dropped back, hence the gap growing. 05-24 08:46

BusterSci Ah. Else it would now be 8th and 10th virtual. 05-24 08:46

Tim in Ky Peloton just getting to the feedzone. 05-24 08:47

Tim in Ky Break has started the long slog up. 05-24 08:47

	Tim in Ky	3:44 to chase one now.	05-24 08:48
	BusterSci	9n minutes now. Monfort still in the group according to the Tiz feed.	05-24 08:49
	Tim in Ky	Monfort is in chase one, Polanc is not.	05-24 08:49
	BusterSci	He's currently 90th on the road.	05-24 08:49
	BusterSci	Brutt can't follow an attack	05-24 08:50
	Tim in Ky	Brut popped.	05-24 08:50
	BusterSci	Today is not his Brutt day.	05-24 08:50
	Tim in Ky	83 km on one's own is not likely.	05-24 08:51
	Tim in Ky	Chase 2 appears to have caught chase one.	05-24 08:53
	Katie	Brutal for Brutt	05-24 08:53
	Tim in Ky	Mohoric is one km from the last KOM.	05-24 08:54
	BusterSci	Mohoric out front means the other UAEs in the break can sit on until he's caught.	05-24 08:55
	BusterSci	Ploanc is bridging up to the front.	05-24 08:55
	BusterSci	He's still in the break	05-24 08:55
	BusterSci	That's virtual 4th place	05-24 08:56
	Tim in Ky	You would think FDJ would be doing some work back in the peloton.	05-24 08:57

BusterSci And Katusha

05-24 08:57

BusterSci And AG2R

05-24 08:58

Tim in Ky I wonder if they know.

05-24 08:58

BusterSci Quintana hit the wall slightly

05-24 08:59

BusterSci ATTACK!

05-24 08:59

Katie Oops. Darn, I hate when that happens.

05-24 08:59

BusterSci Threw his bottle and lost his balance

05-24 08:59

BusterSci There was no attack

05-24 08:59

Katie Bottle weighed more than he does

05-24 08:59

Tim in Ky Chase ove the KOM at 3:00.

05-24 09:00

Tim in Ky over.

05-24 09:00

BusterSci I was encouraging punishment. He didn't come off his bike but he was leaning against the wall. Probably slight abrasions on his right leg, no big deal.

05-24 09:00

BusterSci Mohoric is maintaining his gap at about 3 minutes

05-24 09:04

SFinAusTx Tis just a scratch or just a flesh wound at most

05-24 09:04

Katie He needs a superhero band-aid

05-24 09:05

Alison Quarles Morning all!

05-24 09:05

BusterSci Well, time for me to pack up for a morning of meetings. I won't have a video feed although I may check in here. G'day, all. 05-24 09:08

Tim in Ky Hard to keep track of who's where. Except Mohoric. 05-24 09:12

Katie Gang, totally NRRBBB: I just stumbled across this photo when I was doing some research for work: <http://www.ecns.cn/visual/hd/2017/05-24/130720.shtml> 05-24 09:12

Tim in Ky 72 km 2:20, 13:41. 05-24 09:12

Tim in Ky But who's in that first chase is anybody's guess. 05-24 09:13

Tim in Ky I thought there was occasionally glowing plankton in CA. 05-24 09:15

Tim in Ky Polanc is still in the 8 man chase one. 05-24 09:17

Katie There is! In fact, my nephew asked for Christmas to have my partner and me take him on a bioluminscent kayak trip this summer. There's a place about 70 miles south of here, in an estuary. 05-24 09:18

SFinAusTx Thanks Katie. That beautiful. We kayaked in March on the bioluminescent bay on Vieques (Puerto Rico). It was great experience. That pic is even brighter though. 05-24 09:20

Tim in Ky Polanc now virtual pink! 05-24 09:21

Tim in Ky And now he's not. He's back in chase 2. 05-24 09:25

Tim in Ky 0:52, 13:41 64 km to go. 05-24 09:26

BusterSci vandiik: It's the Velocast (velocast.cc). It's subscription only for the main

05-24 10:23

'cast, but they do have a non-subscription feed as well. Second best expenditure I've made on cycling entertainment (after LUG, of course.)

Tim in Ky Biggest crowd we've had in the Pub since the first Saturday.

05-24 10:24

Thishinma Good morning all. I can't believe I've missed the entire spring classics, the

05-24 10:25

Amgen Tour, and most of the Giro. Mostly, I've missed the sparking chat here.

Tim in Ky QS needs to get the gap under 7:36 if they want to keep Jungels in the BYR jresey.

Tim in Ky 25 km for the peloton. 9:08.

05-24 10:27

Marc @Toad Hall I'm surprised the Giro did not use the ski jumps for the finish.

05-24 10:28

Either way, bad news.

Katie Trish! Glad to "see" you!

05-24 10:29

Tim in Ky Today's finish is not too challenging by Giro standards.

05-24 10:29

05-24 10:30

vandiik Thank you, Buster. Your recommendation means a lot

05-24 10:31

BusterSci They make some great t-shirts at Velocast as well. And if you've seen the recent Cannondale short animations, that's Scott, one of the hosts that makes them.

05-24 10:32

Tim in Ky Those two UAE's are really punching it, but how long can they keep it up?

05-24 10:33

Tim in Ky 20 km for the break. 8:27.

memb54 Morning all.

05-24 10:59

Katie Timed to perfection, I have to hop on a conference call in 2 minutes. I may have to mute the call so I can hear the hollering of Kirby and his sidekick as the horses race to the line.

Tim in Ky 0:24.

05-24 10:59

Marc @Toad Hall It's about time Mons's blessing of Cannondale kicked in.

05-24 10:59

Rob What language did you guys get taught at school? French was mandatory at mine
